Promote your presence at INATS with complimentary postcards. This postcard is designed to be sent to your customers and/or prospects, inviting them to visit your booth. Or you can use it to confirm an appointment you've already scheduled. Simply fill in your company name, booth number and, if you like, a short message. Many companies enclose it when shipping orders!

Remember, you are your greatest promoter! The more you promote your company's participation, the greater your chances of success. The sooner, the better. Fax or email your order to us today – while they're still available!
